

A World Full of Stories: Forge a Deeper Connection to Nature, Wherever You Are

Lesson #1: Find Your Place

How would you describe your relationship to this place, currently? How familiar are you with it (and the plants and animals who live there). Is there anything you'd like to change or improve about your awareness of this spot?

What is special/distinct about your spot? It might seem "normal" and mundane to you, but how would you describe your place to someone who has never been there before?

Lesson #1: Find Your Place

What is something you love about the place where you live? What would you miss if it were gone?

And finally a bonus question to think about, if you're up for another prompt: How do stories matter to you in your life already? As human beings, we are all storytellers. What is one of your favorite stories? (It could be a book, a movie, a family story...)
